Raphael Tuck & Sons' "OILETTE"

ART PUBLISHERS TO THEIR MAJESTIES THE KING & QUEEN.

"QUEBEC."
[Regd.] Postcard 2558.

By Appointment.

Quebec, from Levis. Quebec is situated upon a very high elevation, directly opposite Levis. Ferry-boats continually cross the river between these two points. It was from the heights of Levis that the British bombarded the city of Quebec in 1759.

Printed in England.
